

SCRIPTS TRANSLATED, RESEARCHED, EDITED AND REWRITTEN
FOR FILMS FOR THE HUMANITIES & SCIENCES (1993-94)

THE HUMAN BODY (Originally in German)

Aging	Survival Mechanisms
Arteries	The Autonomic Nervous System
Balance	The Biological Basis of Thinking
Bioelectricity	The Brain
Biological Rhythms	The Biological Preconditions of Learning
Blood	The Circulatory System
Bones, Cartilage and Joints	The Digestive System
Cells	The Female
Defense Mechanisms	The Male
External and Internal Defenses	The Heart
From Conception to Birth	The Human Voice
Genes	The Immune System
Hearing	The Five Senses
Hormones	The Pregnant Woman
How We Communicate	The Respiratory System
Muscles	The Skin
Nerves and Nerve Cells	The Spine
Pain	Veins
Reflexes and Conscious Movement	Smell and Taste
Sleep

MILESTONES IN SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING (Originally in German)

Bell and the Telephone	Stephenson and the Steam Locomotive
Daguerre's Camera	Siemens and the Dynamo-Electric Machine
Edison and the Light Bulb	Space Satellites
Edison and the Phonograph	Radar
The Transistor	The Television
Hertz and Electromagnetic Waves	X-Rays
Laser Technology	Wernher von Braun and the Rocket
Marconi and Wireless Telegraphy	The Wright Brothers and the Airplane
Morse and the Telegraph	The Invention of the Automobile
The Electron Microscope	The Cinematograph
The Computer	The Cathode Ray Tube
The Bicycle	Otto and the Four-Stroke Engine
Nuclear Fission	The Glider

A HISTORY OF SEAFARING (F-Productions, originally in French)

This series traces the evolution of seafaring from ancient Polynesian dugout canoes to state-of-the-art nuclear submarines. Programs detail the history of naval architecture, naval battles, and the physical limitations of the sea.

Exploring the Oceans
Exploring the World
Floating Fortresses
A History of Sailing
A History of Steamships
Adventurers of the Sea
Submarines

SCRIPTS TRANSLATED, RESEARCHED, EDITED AND REWRITTEN FOR FILMS FOR THE HUMANITIES & SCIENCES (1993-94)

THE PACIFIC RIM (F-Productions, originally in French)

The series looks at the geographical, economic, social, political and historical factors affecting these countries.

Australia (2 parts)

Hawaii

Japan

Tahiti

Taiwan

Thailand

Singapore

Hong Kong

SPAIN: WORKS AND DAYS (Originally in Spanish)

This series describes the traditional artistic and agricultural customs of various regions in Spain.

Andalucia

Baleares

Bergantiños (Galicia)

Caneros

The Canary Islands

Castilla - La Mancha

Cataluña

El Pas

Los Oscos - Asturias

The Basque Provinces

Valencia

Valle del Jerte

MYSTERIES OF THE ANCIENT WORLD (Terra-X Productions, originally in German)

The Jade Buddha (on Buddhism in Thailand and Japan)

The Mystery of Shiva (on the ascetics of India)

The Odyssey (2 parts; a recreation of Odysseus' voyage from Troy to Ithaka)

The Mystery of Sindbad (on piracy and early seafaring)

The Mystery of the Anasazi in Chaco Canyon (on the lost tribe and their rituals)

AMERICAN WRITERS (Originally in Italian)

This series consists of interviews with eight American writers and discusses the historical and political forces that have shaped the authors' works.

Saul Bellow

Isaac Bashevis Singer

E. L. Doctorow

Joseph Heller

Harold Robbins

Leon Uris

Peter Shaffer

Susan Sontag

SCRIPTS TRANSLATED, RESEARCHED, EDITED AND REWRITTEN FOR FILMS FOR THE HUMANITIES & SCIENCES (1993-94)

THE SPIRIT OF LIBERTY (Originally in French)

These four programs describe the history of Human Rights, from the French Revolution through the Civil Rights movement of the 1960s.

100 Years of Revolution

The Power of an Idea

A Society of Rights

Endless Struggle

AFRICA (Originally in French)

These programs explore the tensions between ancestral, ethnic traditions and the modern traditions of the younger generations.

Brazil/ Bahia

Dakar

Zaire

FOUR ITALIAN CITIES (Originally in German)

These four programs look at the political, historical and social events which have shaped and changed Southern Italy in the past decade.

Naples

Sicily

Calabria

Rome

LANGUAGES AROUND THE WORLD (Originally in French)

This series explores the similarities and differences among the thousands of languages spoken in the world and predicts the future of the major languages as they continue to evolve.

Sign Language and Chinese

Latin, Sanskrit and the Romance Languages

Indonesian, Russian and Slavic Languages

OTHER PROGRAMS (Originally in French)

Alexandra David-Neel: A Journey from Sikkim to Lhasa (2 parts)

Seven Women in Tibet (retracing A. David-Neel's journey)

A History of French Furniture

A History of the Panthéon in Paris